

Parish Council Meeting

December 2, 2013 6:30 p.m. St. Joseph Schwartz Center

Present: Father Matthew, Kathy Clunk, Marvin Bixler, Suzie Dennis, Lynette Treece, Jamie Burmeister, Karen Whitaker

The meeting began with prayer. The mission statement was read by Kathy Clunk. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

The minutes from the last meeting had a correction that Allyson Oyster's term expires in May of 2014.

New Council Members

Parishioners Janice Menegay and Karen Harris are interested in joining the council. Other suggestions for new members were Buddy Gasparik and Bruce Leskey. They will all be contacted and invited to attend the next meeting.

Finished Projects

All projects completed in 2013 were air conditioning in the Schwartz Center, security system upgrade to include air conditioning units and additional security in the church, and replacement windows in the Schwartz Center.

Elevator

We are still awaiting finalized drawings from the architect, in order to proceed on the elevator. As soon as they are approved construction can begin.

Ongoing Projects

Projects for 2014 will include replacement windows in the adoration chapel and sacristy as well as painting and new carpet in the adoration chapel. The adoration chapel project may be done by the Knights of Columbus.

Community Thanksgiving Dinner

Marvin Bixler reported that 1300 meals were served at the 1st Immanuel Church Community Thanksgiving Dinner. There were ten volunteers from St. Joseph.

The meeting closed with prayer. A covered dish meal was also shared.

The next meeting is scheduled for January 2014.

Barb Rogel, recording secretary December 30, 2013